Neurodiversity Hiring

Why?

- 1 out of 36 born in the US today receive an autism diagnosis.
- The unemployment/under-employment rate for the 5.6M adults in the US is ~80%.
- Unemployment rate for neurodiverse adults runs as high as 30-40%.
- The GDP could get a boost of up to $25 billion if just 1% more of persons with disabilities joined the U.S. labor force.
- This is not just a social issue, but also an economic one.

Benefits

- 15-20% of people have brains that develop or work differently.
- Neurodivergence brings real benefits to businesses.
- Employers surveyed said that neurodiverse workers are hyper focused (80%), think innovatively (75%) and are very creative (78%).
- Embracing neurodiversity isn't just the right thing to do, it's a strategic advantage.
